"Home": by Unknown

Home is where you put one foot on the porch and before your other foot even touches the landing the door dances open and the first thing you see is a huge smile, and the first thing you feel is a huge hug, and the first thing you hear is your own name spoken with excitement and elation and jubilation and so much love.

Home is where you don't have to be anybody but you.

You don't have to be good enough, or clean enough, or smart enough, or strong or pretty enough, or think only the right thoughts, or believe only the right beliefs, or guard your heart,
or deny your mistakes,
or hide your wounds,
or silence your needs or measure your hopes and dreams.

You don't have to pretend to be somebody you're not so you can belong,
because at home
You belong already.....

Welcome Home!

We would like to celebrate Homecoming and Mothers' Day with you! We are asking you to bring an Outlaw's Bridge Memory to share during the service to mingle with quotes from former Pastors. Covered-dish lunch following the service. This will be the first time in two years that it has felt safe to gather.
